EXPECTED TO ARRIVE—Charles Pfaff.

enrich, of Centre Wheeling, reached New York, Tuesday, en route home from a visit to Germany. Mr. P. is expected to arrive here today.

OFF FOR NEW ENGLAND.—J. L. Hays.

Esq., and family, left yesterday on their annual trip to New England. We wish them a pleasant visit and a safe return.

POST OFFICE ITK.—E. Nichols having declined to perform the service required in conveying the mail from the steamboat landing at Conshohocken to the post office, the contract has been given to William T. Dickenson, at $110 per annum from the 1st inst.

HELD FOR POSTAGE.—Letters addressed

as below are held in the postoffice here for the payment of the sum mentioned in each instance: Miss Mary Crow, Newport, Mercer county, O., 3 cents; Mrs. Joanna J. Whittingham, Moundsville, W. Va., 3 cents; Miss Annie Curry, East Liverpool, O., 3 cents; Rev. L. Leibman, Youngstown, O., 3 cents.

PAUSE ALARM.—The alarm of fire last night about half past eight o'clock, proved to be a false one. Some excitement prevailed for a few minutes, but it subsided when the true condition of things became known. One or two parties were arrested, we heard, for persistence in crying fire when there was no occasion for it.

ON TIME.—We mentioned in yesterday's paper that a large vessel was to be towed to the site of the proposed bridge over the creek, preparatory to commencing the work of driving the piles, and the statement was verified promptly. The boat is now there, equipped with derricks and other appliances for the business, and we trust will soon be put on duty.

NEWLY PAINTED.—The Merchants' National

Bank building has been treated, externally, to a new suit of paint. The cornice, columns and pilasters are dressed up in light cream color, the panels in a delicate cream. The interior will soon come from the painters' and trowers' hands, very much beautified and improved in appearance.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—An adjourned

meeting of this Board will be held this morning at their room in the Court House, commencing at 10 o'clock. The object is to hear counsel in the city having cases—the companies in the city having applied to be released from taxation on that portion of their capital invested in United States bonds.

MR. DE CHANTAL.—Exercises at this celebrated institution of learning were commenced last Monday, with a large number of pupils than at the opening of any previous year. Full one hundred boarders were in attendance, we hear, and others are yet to come in. The reputation of Mr. De Chantal is firmly established as one of the leading schools in the country, and its large and increasing patronage is most richly merited.

POLICE COURT.—Three drunks and one disorderly constituted the cases before the police court, yesterday morning. James Paton, Frank Denney and John Johnston answered to the charge first named; Thomas Carton to the latter. The quartette were charged one dollar each and costs, and in default of payment were committed to the jail for ten days on the chain-gang.

RE-HEARING.—Pat Quinlan is to have a re-hearing this morning at 9 o'clock, on the charge of taking money from a countryman. The accused was committed to jail several days since in default of giving security for his appearance at the next term of Circuit Court. Esqr. Gillespie guaranteed a re-hearing, and will hold it at the time mentioned in one of the rooms of the jail.

HALF FAIR.—We were shown a letter, yesterday, from the General Ticket Agent of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, in which he stated that half fare tickets would be sold at all stations on the main stem and the several branches to those who participate in the Soldiers' and Sailors' Re-union to be held in this city next month. We trust this liberal offer will bring out an immense crowd of the "boys in blue."

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—Sometime during

Tuesday night, a gang of burglars attempted to break into the grocery store of J. A. B. Lankens on the Island. The store was in the front of the store were all tried and bear the indications of having not gained an entrance. From the marks of the instruments used on the doors, it is thought that it was the same party that attempted to burglarize the store of Messrs. Geo. R. Taylor & Co., on Monday night.

DEPRESSED ITEMS.—The following items were crowded out of yesterday morning's paper:

UNLAWFUL GAMING.—Peter Erb was arrested and brought before Judge Johnson, yesterday, charged with unlawful gaming. The examination was postponed until Saturday—Erb entering into recognizance for his appearance on that day.

CITY COUNCIL.

First Branch.

In this Branch, His Honor, the Mayor, occupied the chair. At roll call the following members answered to their names: Messrs. Allison, Blair, Booth, Boring, Butterfield, Harrison, Kelly, Pannell, Schumacher, Shallenbarger and Wiedeloch. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and signed.

The following were received from the Second Branch and its action adopting the same concurred in. Resolutions ordering the appeal of the case of A. S. Trowbridge vs. The City of Wheeling, relating to the petition of the City Clerk for a case to hold books and papers to the Committee on Buildings and Real Estate; ordering the appeal of a sewer from Main street, east side from Washington to Jefferson streets—amended by instructing the City Clerk to advertise for proposals.

The bonds of M. Pollock, James Maxwell and J. G. Smith, trustees of the Gas Works, were presented and approved. A resolution appointing a special committee to select a site and report on the propriety of erecting a city building was received from the Second Branch and its action adopting the same concurred in. Messrs. Allison, Booth and Harrison were appointed on behalf of this Branch, said special committee.

A resolution raising a special committee to confer with the Board of Supervisors in relation to the construction of a wooden Howe Truss bridge at the foot of Sixth street, was adopted, and Messrs. Kelly and Allison appointed on said committee from this Branch.

A resolution in the Health Officer's report making an appropriation for the payment of certain bills, was concurred in. A communication from the Superintendent of Water Works, asking that a sewer be placed at the foot of Sixth street, was concurred in.

A resolution authorizing the purchase of water meter, received from the Second Branch, was referred to the Committee on Water Works for examination and report.

A communication from the Chief of Police, asking the honorification of Louis Heller, was received and concurred in. A communication from Wm. Cooper, contractor for digging water-pipe trenches, was read and his request granted.

A communication from the Trustees of the Second Branch, asking for the construction of a cinder walk and the placing of a lamp-post at their old church; action of Second Branch concurred in.

An ordinance assessing a tax for payment of interest on bonds known as the compromise bonds. Action of Second Branch concurred in.

A report from the joint special committee on Fire Department was received from the Second Branch. Its action in adopting the resolutions in it was concurred in.

The report of the Chief Marshal for the month of July, and that of the Board of Control, were read and ordered to be re-elected.

The report of T. H. Logan, chairman of the Committee on Finance, was received from the Second Branch, and its action concurred in.

Proposed of James McDonald, and others to donate ground to widen alley was received from the Second Branch and its action concurred in.

Petition of Edward Leland to transfer coffee house license to Chas. Pfefferman and of Chas. Pfefferman to keep ordinary, were referred to the Committee on Licenses to keep ordinary.

The bids of Sweeney & Co., and of H. H. Miller, Receiver for furnishing gas pipes were opened, and the contract awarded to the former.

The petitions of Ishmael Coffee and Allen B. Rupp for transfer of coffee house license were granted.

The following was offered by Mr. Shallenbarger: That the Committee on Real Estate be requested to report to Council the names of the different persons occupying the city property, and the amount of rents paid quarterly.

Adjusted.
MACHETH.—It is a matter of wonder that this marvellous play is so seldom acted of late years. Perhaps the reason may be that it is almost impossible to find an actor fully competent to personate the title role. The character of Macheth presents so many dissimilar traits, reveals such contradictions, and such apparent inconsistencies of purpose, that it is one of the most difficult of all Shakespeare's creations to analyze or define. Macheth is a brave and honorable chieftain, and yet a low assassin and pitiless tyrant. Mr. Backman, in personating him last night, brought out all the subtle traits in the character of the great Highland Chieftain in a most powerful manner. The scene previous to the assassination was terrible in its earnestness, and a vivid portrayal of the passions that mastered the murderer's mind. Creeping from door to door, he watches and listens at every step, and pines at every entrance to be sure that all are at rest, and is proceeding steadily toward his victim, when the bloody mind turns artist and shapes upon the air that symbol of his desire—the fatal dagger. Only the truly great actor can thus illumine the text, and this scene alone would stamp Mr. Backman as a tragedian of the highest rank.

To-night, at the express desire of several who wish to see Mr. Backman in comedy, he will appear as Sir Harcourt Courtenay, in "London Assurance," his great specialty, and in which he is said to stand without a rival.

Damen and Pythias will be presented to-morrow evening by request of the members of the Knights of Pythias in this city.

"Necessity is the mother of invention," the purifier that was yet offered to the public, induced the proprietors of Dr. Hall's Columbo Filters to greatly increase their facilities for their manufacture. John List sells them, near the Postoffice.

Portraits Photographs are the latest, and are a decided improvement over anything else. Persons who would like a collection of nice pictures, without the expense of framing, will please notice specklers in the window at the Partridge Gallery.

A FIRST CLASS BALTIMORE DRY

GOODS HOUSE.—The house of Daniel Miller & Co., Importers and Jobbers of Dry Goods, Notions and White Goods, No. 229, West Baltimore Street, and No. 14, German Street, was established in the year 1846 by Messrs. Daniel Miller and John Dalkin, and was continued by them until the accidental death of Mr. Dalkin in 1855 on the Camden and Annapolis Railroad. From this latter date, the business of the firm was conducted by Mr. Miller and his sons until the year 1870, when Mr. Miller also died. Since that time the firm has been composed of Mr. Miller's sons, H. Clay Miller, Theodore K. Miller Jr., William R. Miller, and Mr. J. H. C. Reeves, who are at this time conducting a large and prosperous business under the style of Daniel Miller & Co.

Beginning with a small business of $20,000 per annum, in 1846, in a small one floor house and cellar, they have steadily enlarged their business to the present time, having about thirty employees, and selling to the amount of a million and a quarter of dollars a year. They occupy a large five story draft stone house above Howard Street, 21 feet front and 174 feet deep, with two fine cellars.

In passing through this establishment we find everything in dry goods and notions that a retailer can possibly want. On the first floor, fronting Baltimore street, the firm keeps a large stock of prints, gingham, delaines, alpaca, and cloth goods. On the second floor, they have a large stock of fancy goods, such as silks, satins, cassimeres, alabias, and corduroys, which they have the largest and best stock of their own direct importation, on the third, fourth, and fifth floors they keep a line of heavy white goods and notions of every description, window blinds, fancy woolsens, umbrellas, &c., and in the basement a long line of bleached and brown muslins, tickings, flannels, &c.

They make a specialty of alpaca, and after repeated trials, they have settled upon the "Sterling Double Weight," as the best in regard to durability, evenness of finish, and unequalled lustre, and to prevent imitation they have had a steel portrait of the late Daniel Miller engraved as a trade mark.

These gentlemen buy all their goods for cash, and are therefore ready to take every advantage the market affords. They pay particular attention to orders, send to the very lowest market price, and are able to offer facilities unsurpassed by any other city.—Exchange.

STAR FOUNDRY.—We passed a pleasant hour a day or two since in looking through this establishment on Market street. We found our friends, Messrs. Culbertson & Fisher, full of business, getting ready for their fall and winter trade. They have recently procured new patterns of a cooking stove which is said to be the best thing out in that line, and a heating stove they are about to introduce in this market is about the nearest affair of the kind we have ever seen. A new grate they are manufacturing will work a revolution in that mode of heating apparatus. The revolving griddle which had such a run last season, still retains its popularity, and preparations are being made to meet the large demand for it. We were told of a dealer in Michigan who thinks 500 dozens will be required for his sales.

Messrs. Culbertson & Fisher do an immense jobbing business; in fact we believe theirs is about the only establishment in the city approaching anything near a "novelty works." You can get there an endless variety of articles manufactured of iron, and whatever is purchased from them may be relied on as being of the best materials. We don't believe their castings are excelled anywhere for smoothness and good quality. Their facilities for conducting a general foundry business are very ample—none better or larger in this region. The lines of stoves, grates, arches, hollow-ware, &c., are full and complete. Connected with their establishment is a machine shop, where machinery of every description is fitted up. They also sell plans of the most approved patterns. Give them a call, or send in your orders.

The Monroe saloon, with private oyster room, is decidedly superior to any in town, and is now ready to stew, broil, fry, and cook orders in any style; hot coffee, ham and eggs. In fact, a good, square meal can be had there at any time. Call at No. 12 Monroe street.

GREAT closing out sale to make room for new goods. I will offer for the next 15 days my entire stock of Boots and Shoes at cost. L. V. Bond.

CHAS. HESS, merchant tailor, corner Main and Quincy streets, solicits the attention of gentlemen to his fall and winter stock of ready made clothing, consisting of cloths, cassimeres, vestings, all new, and comprising every style popular at the East. With a superior stock, a first-class cutter and the best workmen obtainable, I can guarantee my work, and that my prices will be satisfactory.

C. Hess, Corner Main and Quincy streets.

PINK WALL PAPER.—Messrs. Paul Bros. & Co., No. 90 Market street, have the largest and finest stock of decorations for halls, churches, &c., to be found in the city. Persons desiring such goods will find a very large and complete selection at the above house, and they are the only firm in the city that make a specialty of such goods as Decoration Mountings for panels, the Grained Papers, for varnishing, Gilt, Velvet, Bronze and Embroidered Wall Papers, less than Eastern prices.

I am now selling my entire stock of Boots and Shoes, including Women's, Misses' and Children's colored shoes, cheaper than ever before. I have a large stock of these goods on hand and desire to close them out before receiving new goods. Call early if you want bargains, as the sale will only continue 15 days. L. V. Bond.

J. T. LARKIN & Co., Merchant Tailors, No. 37 Monroe street, 31 door below Market, are now receiving their fall and winter stock of goods, comprising the newest designs and best makes, which will be made to order in the very best style, and sold at very low prices.

"JEROME TAN CARP" have shipped hand-blown, pumple, and all extensive assortment, rendering the skin soft and smooth. Manufactured by CARWELL, HAZARD & Co., 301 and 303 Broadway, New York, my 817-428
